Perfect Season for St. Michael's Girls

Cary, NC – 23-0 sounds pretty good at St. Michael School these days. The girls' varsity middle school basketball team recently completed a perfect season, highlighted by winning their Conference Championship and the recent Shamrock Invitational Tournament in Charlotte, Feb. 20-22. Head coach Cheryl Reid said, "The coaches have truly been blessed to have had the opportunity to coach this group of girls ... they are special both on and off the court." Assistant St. Michael Athletic Director Tara Navarro noted, "The girls showed great team spirit and an atmosphere of respect both on and off the court. Our school community congratulates the team on a great victory at Shamrock and an impressive entire season." The St. Michael boys' varsity team also played well at the Shamrock Tournament and came in fourth place.

St. Michael School is a member of the Triangle Catholic School Athletic Conference, an eight-school athletic conference in the RTP area. The Shamrock invitational included thirty-two teams from Catholic middle schools in North Carolina, Virginia, and Georgia.

***In partnership with St. Michael Catholic Church, Saint Michael School provides a Christ-centered Catholic education, with a focus on academic excellence, and development of each individual.
